A NARROW ESCAPE.

A Detective Captures a Would-Be Outlaw at Lambert's Point.

Detective McKown, of Lambert's Point, has just completed a very clever piece of detective work, which puts Isaac Riddick, a negro, behind the bars on the charge of assault with attempt to kill.

The facts are as follows: On the 12th of last September Mr. Thos. Doyle, who attends to the sand at Sandy Point, which is used in paving the street, was walking along the Bowden's ferry road, near Denby's farm, on his way to his city, when he saw a negro man, walking in front of him, carrying a long club, acting in a rather suspicious manner.

After a while he noticed the man dodge into the bushes. Just as Mr. Doyle passed the spot where the negro left the road he saw the shadow of his uplifted arm, ready to strike with the stick. Remembering the negro, Mr. Doyle raised his left arm to ward off the blow, and received the lick on his forehead. He immediately grappled with the negro and held him as he could. The negro became frightened and, aiming a vicious blow at Mr. Doyle's head, which fortunately missed its mark, dropped his stick and made tracks to get away. About this time Detective McKown came along the road in a buggy, and Mr. Doyle, after explaining the matter to him, put the case in his hands. Mr. McKown immediately started out, with no clue whatever, except the stick with which the assault was made, and the results of the fight.

Yesterday Mr. Doyle, in the county jail, identified Isaac Riddick as the man who attempted his life on the high road. Detective McKown deserves credit for his success in capturing the would-be outlaw.

HANDSOME CHURCH DECORATIONS.
Mr. Harrison Waite, Jr., Weds Miss Lida Young, and Mr. Herbert Arrington and Miss Annie Boisseau Are Made One—Both Were Fashionable Events.

Petersburg, Va., Dec. 4.—(Special)—Grace Episcopal Church was the scene of a very pretty marriage, and in honor of the occasion the church had been very tastefully and elaborately decorated with flowers and potted plants. The parties to this union were Mr. Harrison Waite, Jr., and Miss Lida Young. The ushers were Messrs. Maury Young, Marion Peebles, T. M. Young, and W. S. Young. Mr. S. G. Wilson was the best man.

Miss Berrie Waite, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Mr. J. B. Young, and was met at the altar by the groom, and his best man.

The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. John Ridout. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. W. A. Young, and one of Petersburg's most attractive young ladies. The groom is a postal clerk on the Atlantic Coast Line, and a son of Major Harrison Waite, an architect of this place.

A large and fashionable assemblage gathered at St. Paul's Episcopal Church this evening at 6:30 o'clock, to witness the marriage of Mr. Herbert Arrington and Miss Annie Boisseau. The chancel and pulpit front was beautifully decorated with flowers and potted plants. Miss Lizzie Boisseau, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. Samuel W. Arrington, a brother of the groom, best man. The ushers were Messrs. Holmes Boisseau, Jr., brother of the bride, and L. B. Arrington, of Petersburg; Ivory L. Arrington, of Richmond; A. W. Falkner, of Cumberland; N. C. William Warwith, of Norfolk; and Kemp Plummer, of Portsmouth. The bride wore white French organdie, trimmed with pearl and carried in her hand a bouquet of white roses. The maid of honor also wore white organdie, and held in her hand a bouquet of La France roses. Rev. W. G. Starr, D. D., pastor of Board Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Richmond, officiated. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Boisseau of this city, and quite pretty. The groom is a prominent merchant-broker here.

Constable J. S. Hatchett, of Lumburg, was here to-day, armed with a warrant for the arrest of a negro, named William Thornton Jackson, who is wanted in that county for the larceny of a watch stolen from Mollie Daniel. Upon his arrival here the constable learned that the man he was looking for was at work on the Old Dominion Steamship Company's wharf at Norfolk. He at once wired the Chief of Police of that city to arrest Jackson if he could be found.

Miss Lucy Watson will give a reception to-morrow night in honor of her guests, Mrs. Stuart Brewster, of Baltimore, and Miss Connelly, of Rappahannock county.

City Charter.
An open meeting of the committee on revising the city charter will be held in the City Treasurer's office Thursday next at 8 p. m. at which time suggestions in person or in writing from citizens interested will be gladly received.

Drs. Harmon & Frey.

Telling Time by a Sunflower Clock.
Kansas has often been called the sunflower State—a title more than ever appropriate since the foreman upon Gov. Motley's farm constructed his sunflower clock. Choosing an enormous sunflower he attached to its drooping head a tiny compass, not more than ten feet long. About the plant he drew a circle and divided it into twenty-four parts, each of which was subdivided for minutes and seconds. And now, as the faithful plant from dawn to dusk eyes its fierce lord the cornstalk pointer moves about the dial, indicating the time.

Judge Noise, of New Orleans, who committed the district attorney to jail for contempt of court last week, has been indicted by the grand jury for oppression in office and slander.

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.
Elizabeth City, N. C., Dec. 4.—(Special)—Don't forget the bazaar at the Albemarle House Thursday and Friday nights. It will be a big thing.

Mr. Erskine Ehringhaus' handsome residence, on Fearing street, is nearly finished. Upon completion it will be an ornament to that part of the city.

The work of putting in electric lights in the Methodist Church in addition to the old gas light is nearly completed. It has been needed for some time, and very often the gas gives a very poor light.

Mr. Zenas Fearing and Mr. C. N. Crawford returned to-day from Berkeley, where they have been acting as waiters in the marriage of Mr. H. C. son and Miss Lella Humphries, which took place at the Chestnut Street Church yesterday afternoon.

DISAPPEARMENT—Rev. Dr. Johnston received a telegram yesterday from the Rev. Dr. Black, who was to carry on the meeting which has already been begun at the Presbyterian Church, that it would be impossible for him to come here and take part in the work. It will be quite a disappointment to many.

THE OYSTER LAW—The oyster dredging law allowing dredging only by natives of this State is now in effect. There are many varied opinions as to whether this law will be an improvement on the old one, which allowed outsiders the privilege of dredging, as it is thought that it will impair the oyster trade of this place.

THE LADIES' BAZAAR—The ladies of the Episcopal Church have every thing in preparation for their big bazaar, which is to take place Thursday and Friday nights, for the benefit of that church. A pleasant evening may be expected by all who attend, as a fine musical programme has been arranged, besides the refreshments, etc.

EDENTON, N. C.

Edenton, N. C., Dec. 4.—(Special)—Mr. W. R. Shannon, of Hertford, was in town yesterday.

Mr. B. E. Byrd, optician and jeweler, has moved his shop from East Queen street, and occupies the room over Mr. L. L. Moore's store.

Mr. Tooley, of the express office, who has been out of town several days, has returned.

Remember the entertainment to-night (Thursday) by St. Mary's Guild at Ben's Opera House.

The large audience that assembled at Ben's Opera House last night to witness the performance of Gorton's Minstrels and expecting to see a good show were not in the least disappointed. The jokes and songs are new and funny, the music and dancing was excellent.

Webby, Pearl and Keweenaw, the nondescript trio, pleased the audience. In fact, all was good and the audience was pleased with the whole performance.

The Spine
is one of the most tender parts of the body. Inflammation there results in weak nerves everywhere.

Allcock's Porous Plaster
will be found to have a beneficial effect in allaying the inflammation and restoring strength. It is invaluable in all sorts of lameness and congestion.
